BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT

One of the Most Interesting Weddings of the Year in Wytheville. Other Marriages.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WYTHEVILLE, VA., October 10.—St. John's Episcopal Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding this evening at halfpast 6 o'clock, when Miss Minnie Boyd Spiller was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Norton Williams, of Mobile, Ala. The Rev. Chauncey Williams, father of the groom, officiated, assisted by Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton, rector of the church.

Mrs. A. A. Campbell, cousin of the bride, was the organist, rendering a musical program while the guests assembled, and playing Mendelssohn's Wedding March and the Coronation March from The Prophet as the bridal party entered and left the church.

The wedding was unique in that the bride was attended by her only sister, Miss Sue M. Spiller, as maid of honor, and six of her eight brothers, Dr. William H. Spiller, of New York; Mr. T. Boyd Spiller, Baltimore; Mr. Frank M. Spiller, Florida; Mr. Stuart M. Spiller, Chicago, and Messrs. Donald and Ernest Spiller, of Alabama.

The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. Lloyd Batte, of Mobile.

The bride wore an elegant dress of white messaline, trimmed with duchess and rose point lace, and carried a shower bouquet of orchids.

The maid of honor's dress was an empire gown of white, with a border of pink roses, and her flowers were La France roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Spiller. The groom is the only child of Rev. and Mrs. Chauncey Williams, formerly of Augusta, Ga., but now of Mobile, Ala.

After the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's parents to the relatives of the two families.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Rev. and Mrs. Chauncey Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Jones, Mrs. and Miss Goldsby, of Mobile; Mrs. Henry Ware, of New York; Mrs. Stuart Crockett, St. Louis; Mrs. J. E. Knibb, Brunswick, Ga.; Mrs. Richard Gibson, Alexandria; Mrs. Clarence Howard, Fredericksburg; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bleg, Washington; Mrs. Charles D. Witherspoon, Petersburg.

CHISM-SLINGLUFF.

Beautiful Wedding of Gloucester Girl and Baltimore Man.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GLOUCESTER C. H., VA., October 10.—The Chism-Slingluff marriage, which was celebrated yesterday at "Kenwood," Gloucester county, the home of the bride, was an occasion of much social interest in the county, as well as in Richmond and Baltimore, the bride being an unusually popular member of the Gloucester society. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers.

The ceremony was performed by the rector of Ware Parish, the Rev. William Byrd Lee, assisted by the Rev. Mamie Lee, of the Walbrook Presbyterian Church, Baltimore. The bride, who was gowned in a dark green tailored suit, with green hat to match, entered the parlor with her father, Mr. Isaac Slingluff, walking down the aisle formed by ribbons. Miss Marretta Cannon, of Baltimore, was maid of honor, and wore champagne tulle, with large picture hat of champagne velvet, trimmed with burnt orange ostrich plumes, and carried a bouquet of dark red carnations.

The groom, Mr. Harry Thornley Chism, with his best man, both of Baltimore, awaited the bridal party at the improvised altar.

The charming group of little ribbon-bearers, who were the bridesmaids of the occasion. They were Misses Anne Withers and Molly Talliaferro, in white dresses and green sashes, and Masters Joseph Bryan and Baldwin Withers, in white sailor suits.

Directly after the ceremony a delicious breakfast was served, shortly after which the bride and groom left for the North.

Guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Blair, Misses Chism, Mrs. S. R. Smith, Miss Marretta Cannon, Mr. E. A. Jackson, Miss Rena Slingluff, James McIntosh, Mrs. Charles E. Duck, Robert S. Duck, Mr. and Mrs. Upton Slingluff, Omaha; Mrs. J. St. George Bryan, Richmond; Miss Margaret N. NUFORM 406

Is a splendid corset for medium figures, pleasingly free from any bulky effect common to previous models of this type. Medium high bust and long hips, ending in an unbanded apron extension. Made of white and drab coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Trimmed with lace and ribbon.

Sizes 19 to 30.

Price, $1.50

The W. B. Reduso Corset

Is a boon for large women—the ideal garment for over-developed figures requiring special restraint. It not only restrains the tendency to over-fleshiness, but it moulds the over-developed proportions into those pleasing, graceful outlines, hitherto thought to be attainable only by slighter figures. The particular feature of this model is the apron over the abdomen and hips, banded in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

Reduso Style 750 for tall well-developed figures. Made of a durable coutil in white or drab. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 22 to 36. Price, $3.

Reduso Style 760 for short well-developed figures. Made of white and drab coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 24 to 36. Price, $3.

BIG GATHERING OF DISCIPLES TO-DAY

International Missionary Convention of Christian Church to Open at Norfolk.

DELEGATES ARE POURING IN

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., October 10.—The International Missionary Convention of the Christian Church, which is expected to bring here a record-breaking gathering of religious workers that the city has probably ever had within its doors at one time, begins to-morrow, when the Christian Board of Missions, one of the principal affiliated societies, convenes at Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Pocahontas and Beach streets.

All of to-day the delegates to the International Convention and the several connections thereof were coming into the city, and the local committees, with headquarters on the first floor of the convention hall (Norfolk Armory Hall) were busy registering the arrivals and assigning them to the homes where they will be cared for during the six days of the convention, which Rev. George H. Combs, one of the most prominent men in the Episcopal Church, is the president.

The first meeting of the Christian Board of Missions will be held at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning when the annual executive meeting of the board occurs at the First Church of Christ (Disciples), Fremont Street, between Bank and Brewer Streets, only a short walk from the main convention hall. This meeting will not be open to the public.

The first public session of the board convenes at Epworth Church to-morrow evening with a fine program. To-morrow night will continue through next Wednesday and Thursday will be the Disciples Day at the exposition. The big union communion service in Armory Hall next Sunday afternoon will be one of the features of the meeting.
